

1225-1274

St. Thomas Aquinas
Given title Angelic Doctor.
The great scholastic theologian of the Dominican Order

1225

Louis VIII died; accession of Louis IX;
Blanche of Castile regent to 1235.

1225-1720

Heidelberg

German city, residence of electors of Rhenish Palatinate.

1225

1912 Dates J-EK

Italy & Germany

Promise of a Crusade was renewed.

1224

The Nicæan Emperor John III
~~was~~ ~~captured~~ had recovered Asia
minor from the Latin Empire of Constantinople Constantinople nearly fell.

C 1225

Until 13th Century the year began on Christmas Day

In 12th Century the Church began to reckon the year to begin on Feast of Annunciation on
Mar. 25

1225

By 1225 almost all the works of the great Greek philosopher Aristotle were available in Latin translation.

Albertus Magnus (1206? -80) of Cologne tried to interpret and systematize the rediscovered works of Aristotle. ^{He} ~~he~~ was considered to be the most learned man of his time.

1225

1912 Dates J-BK

Drainage of LONDON was first provided for by legislative enactment.

1225-1228

YOLANDE was Crusader Ruler of ~~Jerusalem~~ Latin Kingdom

1225-1274

St Thomas AQUINAS

C1225-1274

St Thomas Aquinas

1225 - 1274

St. Thomas Aquinas

A Dominican priest, lived from about 1225 - 1274. He is probably the greatest theological master of Christianity, and his thought dominated Catholic teaching for 700 years after his death. St Paul named Aquinas doctor of the church. In 1880, LEO XII declared honor patron of all schools, colleges, and universities.

His feast is Jan. 28